Description

Early 19th.c. mahogany secretaire chest of drawers c.1820. At 42" wide it is a little smaller than many we see. The top two drawers are a dummy front which slides and folds open to make a good sized desk with a fitted interior of pigeon holes and slim stationery drawers around a lockable compartment at the centre. Solid mahogany top with an applied thumb moulded edge. Three long drawers of graduated height below the bureau. Cockbeaded drawer fronts with good quality brass handles. Raised on large bracket feet at the front and sides. Solid mahogany sides and drawer linings throughout. Excellent colour and condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: Width 42", Height 39½", Depth 21" / 38".
