Description

This is a wonderful example of a late Victorian/early Edwardian playing card case. The solid sterling silver box is hand hammered all over and is lightly gilded inside. The hallmarks are for Birmingham 1901 with the maker's mark of the highly regarded silversmith Lawrence Emanuel. There are also partial hallmarks on the lid. The hinges are good and the silver is in excellent condition. There are two complete sets of miniature playing cards, with jokers, and they are in surprisingly good condition. They depict Nelson's Victory and Drake's Revenge. Dimensions: Length: 7cm Width: 5cm Height: 2cm Silver Weight: 84g Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
