Description

An attractive pair of 19th century antique oak armchairs with upholstered seats. The oak armchairs have a 'M' curved top with a shaped central splat, with open arms raised on turned supports. The pair of antique oak armchairs have drop-in red striped fabric seats that have recently been professionally reupholstered. The chairs are raised on turned and square legs, with a straight 'H' stretcher support. A rather good pair of antique armchairs. Item Ref; M-3934 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 106cm / Width – 58.5cm / Depth – 55.5cm / Seat Height - 47cm .

CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the frame (pictured), and fading to the arms and seat (pictured). One of the chairs has a repair to the top (pictured). The pair of oak armchairs remain structurally solid and sound, with good tight joints. Overall, a clean example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition repo...
