Description

George III period mahogany 'Cockpen' arm-chair with rounded rails, a square back and arms with swept under supports. The back and arms with Chinese style railings; a cane seat with a loose cushion in crimson draylon; on square legs and original castors with pierced brackets; a fine example. Circa 1770 Chairs of this distinctive form were supplied to Cockpen Church, Midlothian and the name has become associated with variants of the original pattern. 23 1/4" (59cm) wide, 17 1/4" (44cm) deep in the seat, 18" (46cm) height of seat, 37" (94cm) high overall John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where - in normal times - we hold an Open Weekend every November. We hope to run an event in 2022!
