Description

17th Century Yew Wood Gateleg Table of outstanding colour and patina with a wonderful skin especially to the top. The early butterfly hinges are original as are all the leaves to the top, the base with turned legs and Braganza feet having lost no height and without replacements to the feet. With the exception of a couple of small patches to the top the Table is in remarkable original condition even the drawer has the original turned knob. A rare Yew wood example that will seat six to eight.
