Description

Stunning early 19th century Regency parcel gilt bronze table lamp in the form of a boar's head. Wonderful quality lamp with original round hobnail cut glass globe. Obviously original an oil based lamp but now converted to electricity. Very nice original condition, hasn't been over-cleaned and thus the gilt has a lovely patination to it. Very unusual design. Possibly originally one of a pair. There are very minor nibbles to the glass globe but otherwise this is in first class condition. SIZE; 7" by 5" by 13 1/2" high overall CIRCA; 1810
