Description

A good early-mid 19th century drop dial wall clock with a five pillar, eight day twin fusee movement striking on a bell, with a 12 inch (30cm) painted roman dial signed 'Whitmore & Son, Northampton' above a brass lined cartouche shaped lenticule. The case is made of nicely figured mahogany with carved grape and vine leaf flanking motifs just below the dial. Whitmore & Son of Northampton are recorded in Loomes' 'Watchmakers and Clockmakers of The World' book as working 1830-1864. This clock is shown unserviced but will be fully overhauled and comes with our two year guarantee. 58cm H x 37 cm W x 13cm D
