Description

Makers labels - Chairs and Sofa by Collins & Hayes Archway Rd London. An early 20th century ladies and gents pair of armchairs, still in their original but distressed leather upholstery with later cotton seat cushion. The leather has signs of old repairs and have that lived in look so popular today. The actual frames are very solid, with superb oak pilaster carvings to the front. The springs under the seats are unusually good condition and still very firm. A super pair of chairs well worthy of reupholstery if the distressed look is not for you.
