Description

An early 19th century concertina extending dining table in very original condition. The table has two leaves and stands on turned legs with brass castors. As a side table it measures 110cm 53cm with the fold over top opened it measures 110cm x 106cm. There are two leaves each measuring 55cm that when in place make the table 216cm in length. The table is very solid and the extending mechanism works very well. Delivery service available please ask for a quotation.
