

SA899097

Victorian silver christening mug

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA899097*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

An interesting Victorian silver christening mug with a maidens lozenge to the front. The bow at the top of the lozenge indicates this. The inscription around the top of the mug reads "To Kathleen Penson Plunkett from her godfather Charles Hunter of Plas Coch Anglesey. I understand that Plas Coch is a country house on Anglesey. Charles Hughes-Hunter was the first Baronet, a title that became extinct in 1951. Very good quality mug London 1900 by William Hutton & Sons. The decoration is in good order it it a good clean piece. Weight 121.4 g H 8 cm D base 5.5 cm D top 5 cm

Seller Details

Digby Antiques (Wiltshire)

Wiltshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07710 931929

International Tel: +44 7710 931929

