Description

A lovely burr walnut stationery cabinet dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a lovely warm patina and a sloped front with brass escutcheon. The doors opens out to reveal a series of racks for holding papers and letters. There is also a pen tray and two glass inkwells and below this there is a large drawer that is released by pushing a brass button at the very top of the box. It is in good condition and although it has been used it has been well looked after over the years. There are a few small knocks and marks around the outside, some shrinkage splits and a small chip on the front but nothing detrimental. Inside there is a small repair to a break at the top of the letter racks (see photo). We do not have a key. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £20.
