Description

The front of this French, two drawer, bedside table has beautiful floral marquetry framed with ebony and boxwood stringing, this floral inlay is repeated on the oval top. The table stands on four cabriole legs, each with ormolu mounts. The sides are attractively panelled and outlined with ebony and boxwood stringing, this allows the table to be viewed from all angles. The condition is very good and the table stands well. A very pretty table for the bedside or as an occasional table in any room. c. 1890 Width: 12" 31 cm Depth: 9.25" 23.5 cm Height: 28.25 72 cm
