Description

For your consideration is this very unusual and highly decorative porcelain lidded jar, believe to be possibly German. Representing a clown / Pierrot kneeling in front of their love interest. Vibrant colouring which is as bright and crisp as when first manufactured. The glaze is also free from crazing. Wonderfully styled features. This is quite a rare piece and is ideal for both display and use. In great condition with only one flaw to note which is a very faint hairline, which is about 2 cm and looks to be rigid and unlikely to travel further and much taller than usually found of these boxes. Registration number is underneath the base. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY
