

SA900313

Pair of early 19th Century Wedgwood Blue & White Plates

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA900313*Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Width = 20.5 cm (8.1")

Description

A good pair of Wedgwood blue and white plates in 'Absalom's Pillar' pattern. This pair of 19th Century Wedgwood plates feature a central scene showing Absalom's tower or tomb surrounded by a botanical border of crocus flowers. These antique Staffordshire plates are in excellent condition and the colour is a good mid blue, this is accurately shown in the photographs. Both plates have faint impress marks 'Wedgwood' and the letter 'H' painted in underglaze blue. A lovely pair of early 19th Century plates to add to a collection or display on a table or dresser. c. 1822 Diameter: 8" (20.5cm) Height: 0.75" (2cm)

Internal Ref: D385

Seller Details

Hobson May Collection

Cheshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07768 304056 or 0771 386 0021

International Tel: +44 7768 304056 or +44 771 386 0021