Description

An excellent quality late 19th century mahogany extending DINING TABLE with D-ends, capable of seating TEN in comfort. The well figured top is cross-banded and extends outwards to accommodate the additional leaf. It is supported on two solid mahogany 'gun-barrel' columns which lead to sabre legs and large brass 'Lions Paw' feet with brass castors. The table extends by means of the concertina wooden structure underneath and the extra leaf is held in place by its original brass clips. A good solid and attractive table in excellent condition. Dimensions: Length: 8ft (max) 6ft (min); Width: 4 ft Height: 29 inches. (244 (max) x 184 (min) x 122 x 74 cms) Dated: c.1880-1900.
