Description

A superb pair of early 18thc Queen Ann brass candlesticks.....they are the quality you find on silver examples of these types, but in brass they are much harder to find..... they stand on a wide octagonal base and have a large central "tear drop" knop and finished off with a faceted shaped candle socket.....both are of seamed construction and are in excellent condition with a natural colour from years of use. English. C1710-15.
