Description

Victorian leather library chair This Victorian leather library chair was made circa 1870. The mahogany frame with the lovely feature of having the lions head beautifully carved to the open arms. Having a deep buttoned back in a high-quality leather hide, in a warm tobacco colour. It has well turned front legs with brass cup castors. Imagine sitting back and relaxing in this chair, I expect there will be many of your family and friends who will be vying to try it out. I have tried it out myself and sure it is one, if not the most comfortable of chairs I have sat in. 69cms widest across the arms 27ins 89cms high 35ins 92cms deep 36ins 39cms seat height 15 1/2ins 56cms seat depth 22ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
