Description

Stunning Victorian pier cabinet / display cabinet in solid walnut with Ormolu mounts, in excellent condition with only minor marks / scuffs in line with age and use. It's top has amazing figured walnut veneers with superb graining, under this is a frieze with foliate and delicate string inlay. The door open to a red velvet interior with two removable shelves and comes with working lock and key. This is a very attractive item and is a great size that will display your books or treasures with style. Pier cabinets intended for use in the entrance halls where they stood in the masonry piers between the windows. Internal Reference: SAI2658
