Description

An early 18th century oak mule chest. The antique mule chest has an oak two plank lid that opens to reveal a spacious interior. The chest has a three panel front with two fitted drawers below, each fitted with brass handles. The mule chest is raised on stile legs. The initials 'S.H' and date '1725' are carved into the front. A neatly proportioned example. Item Ref; M-3762 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 71cm / Width - 121cm / Depth - 53cm .

CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and staining to the top surface and front (pictured). The antique oak mule chest remains structurally solid and sound although a couple of later wooden braces have been added to the base inside (pictured). There is evidence of old historic woodworm in places - this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
