Description

A fine Edwardian silver cruet set, comprising a mustard pot, matching salt and pepper pots, mustard spoon, in a velvet and silk lined box, inscribed with silversmiths name Hall & Co of Manchester. Each silver item is hallmarked for Sheffield 1907 apart from the spoon which is Sheffield 1905. Each item bears the makers mark HA for Atkin Brothers. The mustard pot lid and base are hallmarked. The top of the lid of the salt and pepper is hallmarked as well as the bases. The three pots stand on pad feet. The mustard pot has a bulbous body, scrolling handle and piecrust raised rim. The original blue liner is present. The salt and pepper repeat the bulbous shape, piecrust rim with very elegant piercing in the lids. All together very pretty and graceful. (The box is missing it's clip.) Maximum dimensions of the mustard pot are given.
