Description

A truly special vintage diamond ring. The ring is centred by a white, bright, and internally clean old mine cut diamond secured by four claws at each corner. A pair of equally high quality baguette cut diamonds flank the centre stone, leading to a slim 18k white gold shank channel set with six (three each side) further baguette cut diamonds in the shoulders. The ring showcases how modern baguette cuts diamonds can work with and enhance a Victorian era diamond. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report from IGR (#30309960). Cut – Old mine cut diamond in centre with baguette cut diamonds either side and running down the shoulders Colour – H in the centre. The baguette cuts range from F to H. Clarity – The centre is VS1. The diamonds in the shoulders range from VS1 to SI2. Carat – The centre is a known 0.82 carat, with a further approximate 1.12 carat of baguette cut diamonds. Circa – 1960. Size – P (UK) or 7.5 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can be sized up or down. There is some limit to how much this can be altered, so please contact us before ordering Measurements – The centre diamond is 5.6 x 5mm and sits 5.25mm from the finger. Metal – 18k white ...
