Description

A Charming Walnut Pembroke Table. A solid Walnut Pembroke table. This is a lovely example of a Edwardian solid Walnut dining table believed to be made around C1890 featuring a lovely lightly faded rich Walnut colour with original patina and charm. We have just sympathetically restored, cleaned and waxed this lovely table giving a beautiful natural shine whilst enhancing the original French polished finish. This table has a very small form yet is versatile from having 2 drop-down leaves managing to comfortably seat 4 people and be used as a dining room, breakfast table, occasional/hall table or even a desk. This table features a hidden single drawer to the one side opened via a finger slot underneath. The drawer is dovetailed constructed, is smoothly operating and clean inside. The table has 4 finger leaf supports which work smoothly and the table stands on 4 typical Edwardian turned legs on its original solid polished Brass castors on brown porcelain wheels. The table is solid with no loose joints or woodworm and the solid Walnut tops are flat and not twisted. Please note; Being an antique item of this age there are obviously marks, scratches, stains and dents as p...
