Description

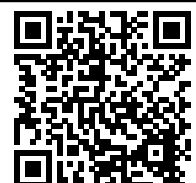

'Narrative Of A Journey Through The Provinces Of India From Calcutta To Bombay, 1824-1825' by Reginald Heber, published by John Murray, London in 1828. All three volumes are three quarter bound in a fine tan calf leather with red leather title panel, gilt stamped decoration and three thick raised bands to the spine. Marbles boards. The bindings show signs of shelf wear commensurate with age, the top of Volume I more so than the other volumes, but all bindings remain attractive. Plain pastedowns and endpapers to each volume. Some spotting throughout, predominantly to the preliminary pages. All pages are free from inscription. An attractive set.
