Description

An early 18th century antique carved oak coffer. The oak coffer has a sunken three panel lid, with original hinges, that opens to reveal a spacious interior. The coffer has a three panel front with each panel having decorative carved detail. Raised on stile feet. Item Ref; M-3811 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 68.5cm / Width – 125cm / Depth – 61cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches, and staining to the top surface, front, and sides (pictured). There are losses in places and some honest, historic repairs. The coffer remains structurally sound and retains its original hinges. There is evidence of old historic woodworm - this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Overall, a good, decorative example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
