Description

An early 20th century painted table lamp, the bulbholder above a simulated candle over a lobed inverted baluster on a capstan to a spreading foot. English or French, circa 1910. Condition: Overall very good, the lamp is in good condition and appears to retain most of the original paint which has a nicely worn appearance. The lamp has been rewired using a new safety bulbholder, 2 metres of new bronze coloured braided flex and a new plug fitted with a 3amp fuse.
