Description

A very good late 18th / early 19th century linen SAMPLER by Susan Mary Williams of the Lozells Establishment. This is very finely sewn with script (see below); Peacocks; lions; trees and shrubs with an ornate border. It retains its bright colours and is good original condition. Framed behind glass. The script reads: 1. "Jesus permit thy gracious name, to stand, as the first effort, of an infants hand, and while her fingers, on the canvass move, engage her tender heart to seek thy love, with thy dear children, let her have a part, and write thy name thyself, upon her heart. 2. Great Saviour, who didst condescend young children in thine arms to take, still prove thyself the childrens friend, and save them for thy mercy's sake. It is by the guidance of thine hand, that they within thine house appear, and in thine awful presence stand to hear thy word, and join in prayer. 3. Like precious seed, in fruitful ground, let the instruction they receive with fruits of righteousness abound, and make them to thy glory live. To read thy word, their hearts incline, to understand it, light impart. Dear Saviour, may they all be thine, take full possession of each heart". An almost ide...
