Description

A useful table in that it can be used as two separate side tables, a small dining table or a 8 seat dining table. The table is in excellent solid condition, mainly original but with a few professionally executed repairs. The tops have been beautifully re-polished, there is a repair to one leg as shown in the pictures and the brass castors are in period replacements although the brass claws are original. This is a beautiful and very useful table with many more years use in it. Delivery service is available please ask for a quotation.
