Description

An impressive 19th century antique elm elbow chair with a rush seat. The antique elbow chair has a shaped top with a spindle backrest, and shaped open arms. The antique elbow chair has a durable rush seat, raised on shaped legs and straight stretcher supports. A particularly pleasing antique armchair, well crafted and aesthetically looking. Item Ref; M-3354 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 115cm / Seat Height - 46cm / Width – 62cm / Depth – 54cm .

CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and stains to the backrest, arms and legs (pictured). The rush seat looks a little frayed in places, however it remains functional. The antique elbow chair remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a good example of a 19th century armchair. There are also signs of historic woodworm which is long gone and has since been treated as a precaution. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition ...
