Description

Early C20th brass-framed hexagonal glazed hall lantern of early C19th design. Good quality, heavy-gauge lacquered brass hall lantern of early C19th period style. Fitted with a 3-light hanging turned brass 'spindle' to the centre, within a glazed hexagonal case with hinged opening door panel for access. The top with scrolled supports to a hanging-ring at the top. The top of the glazed panels fitted with a cast-brass scrolling classical acanthus leaf at each corner. The bottom of the panels fitted with 'acorn-style' brass drop-finials. The base fitted with a circular glass panel. An accurate and well-proportioned large-scale copy of an important early C19th brass-framed hall lantern, in excellent original condition. *Wiring could be professionally checked pre-sale but would obviously require hanging and fitting by a qualified electrician H 30" W 17" D 17" England c.1930
