Description

This delightful Late 19th Century Antique English Victorian Porcelain Figurine, "The Flower Seller", was produced by John Bevington, { 1872 - 1892 }, at the Kensington Pottery, St. James Street, Hanley, Staffordshire. A charming and decorative subject, beautifully modelled, by a Potter whose work has become increasingly difficult to source in today's market. Brimming with character and, quite simply, of superb quality. The underside with underglaze blue painted B within crossed swords mark, { Godden No. 352 }.
