Description

This 19th century table lamp is painted in the traditional design of the Kashmiri region but the colour palette is somewhat unusual in that the background is cream and the decoration in reds, pinks and black. The combination of these colours make a very pretty lamp. The lamp has been professionally rewired and PAT tested to comply with the UK mains system. A lovely antique lamp to suit any room in the home. Shade not included. c. 1890
