Description

This early 20th century oil on canvas depicts a nautical scene with a view of St Michaels Mount beyond. Although as yet, not attributed to a particular artist, this painting has clearly been executed by a very talented hand. Presented in a gilt frame this painting would grace any home. The size being 123 cm x 76 cm whilst overall the size is 138 cm x 89 cm. In overall very good condition there is craquelure throughout the piece mainly noticeable to the sky and only when close to painting this does not detract from this very attractive work. St Michael's Mount is a tidal island in Mount's Bay, Cornwall, England, United Kingdom. The island is a civil parish and is linked to the town of Marazion by a causeway of granite setts, passable between mid-tide and low water. SHIPPING Free uk delivery.
