Well proportioned Georgian mahogany chest of drawers with a two over three configuration of graduating drawers, circa 1820. Wonderful figured mahogany with beaded drawers and turned knobs, a cross banded top and stands on bracket feet. The top right drawer has a false back to it which lifts out to reveal two hidden drawers. The drawers also have their original blue paper linings too. The condition is good with just the usual age and use related marks, none of which are of a concern, but this is reflected in the pricing so it is a great value 200 hundred plus years old chest of drawers.
