Description

Fantastic Edwardian pull out table in solid oak in beautiful rustic condition. The solid rectangular top has two pull out leaves at each end and these can be used separately or together making this a very versatile table. Underneath are two wonderfully carved bulbous pineapple style supports sitting on platform feet united by solid oak stretcher. A charming table with superb graining with all the historical marks, scuffs and wear you would expect from an item that has been used and loved for many years. Still a very useful item with real character that will enhance any room it is place in. Width when opened 213cm Knee height 60cm
