Description

Technical Description An 18th-century facet cut wine glass with a round funnel bowl engraved and cut with swags. Sits on a thick diamond facet cut stem above a thick firing foot. Polished pontil. Date & Origin England, c1790 Condition Excellent, age-related wear as shown. No chips cracks or restoration Dimensions Height: 12.4cm Rim diameter: 5.1cm Foot diameter: 6.7cm Comment The firing foot is an uncommon feature on a standard-sized wine glass. It's more often found on 18th-century dram glasses. Also, the polished pontil would indicate that the glass is towards the end of the 18th century, the Facet Cut form being the only 18th-century form where you will occasionally find a polished pontil rather than a snapped rough pontil.
