Description

A large and impressive 19th century antique oak two stage bookcase. The antique oak bookcase has a moulded edge to the top with an open rack back consisting of eight adjustable shelves, creating ten sections of various sized storage spaces. The bottom section has a breakfront, with six adjustable shelves, creating a further nine storage sections. Raised on a plinth base. Please note, this is a large piece of antique furniture so please double check the measurements and access before making a purchase. Separates into two sections for ease of transport. Item Ref; M-601a . DIMENSIONS: Height – 247cm / Width – 188.5cm / Depth – 35cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and stains to the shelves (pictured). There is minor evidence of historic woodworm, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. There are losses to the decorative edging on the bottom section (pictured). The antique oak bookcase remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a clean example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have ...
