Description

For the historian and/or the engineer in your life! A lovely comfortable Victorian mahogany bar back carver chair with turned and fluted front legs. The wood has a lovely original dark colour and a great sheen. The chair has a buttoned fabric seat has been later sign written Brunel to the reverse of the back rail, in homage to Isambard Kingdom Brunel, the great civil engineer, if not the greatest of all time. A great looking piece that would make a fantastic gift, there's not another one in existence. Please see the other sign written chairs we have in stock. Seat height 49cm This piece is later hand sign written.
