Description

An Antique Ziegler carpet from the late 19th century, with the large scale design we associate with these decorative carpets of this period. Rich warm reds have been used for the main field colour combined with pale blues, yellows and some greens. An attractive array of natural dyes make this a warm and inviting carpet for a drawing room, study, library, dining room or bedroom. As this could be easily placed within an existing scheme or you could build a room around this stunning piece! Available to be privately viewed at home, by requesting a home visit, you can choose a convenient day and time for us to bring this carpet to you. We travel nationwide showing our carpets to private customers and interior designers, it would be a pleasure to help you. Alternatively arrange a visit to our barn showroom, we are open Monday to Saturday by appointment. The history of Ziegler carpets: In 1883, Ziegler and Co, of Manchester, England established a Persian carpet manufacture in Sultanabad Persia, which employed designers from major western department stores such as B. Altman & Co of New York and Liberty, to modify 16th- and 17th-century Eastern designs for the more restrained tastes of the Victorian era.
