Description

A good looking wardrobe from the early 1900s. It is in pretty tidy condition and certainly sound. Comes into three pieces to move so makes life a little easier. It came by mistake and is taking up space so its really keenly priced to regain the space at only £100.00. It has the Chippendale blind fret on the cornice and reeded canted corners down the facings, the whole robe sits on ogee bracket feet. The shaped mirror has a bevel edge and the inside has sliding hangers for your clothes. Its pretty good quality as you can see so we certainly dont think anyone could be disappointed in that area. It would benefit from a rewaxing to be fair to bring out its best, if you wanted us to do it I guess it would cost about £40. Give us a call and pick up the best buy of the week. (pictures taken in our warehouse so not the best sorry)
