Description

An old pine bureau dating from the 1920s. Could also be used as a ladies dresser, with small jewellery drawers. There is a small amount of decorative carving to the four corners and fluting down the left and right hand sides. At the top is a drawer with nice old brass drop handles and the original key plate. The middle section has a drop down work surface with a fully working lock and key. Inside the middle section are nine drawers, four small ones on the left and four small ones on the right. The ninth drawer at the bottom is slightly larger and sits below a central cubby hole. Below is a cupboard with panelled doors and fully working lock and key. Inside is a single shelf. All sitting on bracket feet to the front and block feet to the rear. Originally painted and recently stripped, can be purchased in the bare wood for £660 or wax polished for £747. Height 55", Width 39", Depth 18.5"
