Description

This superb EDWARDIAN SILVER TOAST RACK has four compartments divided by an arched style frame supporting a central handle. The Silver Toast Rack, made by Lowe & Sons Ltd and assayed in Chester in 1909, has a rectangular shaped body / base with five arch-shaped dividers resulting in four toast sections and the central divider has a shaped handle on the top. This lovely Silver Toast Rack has not been engraved with any family crests or initials and one end has a full set of clearly defined hallmarks. This is made from good heavy gauge silver, is of fine quality and is in exceptional condition and could be used as intended as a toast rack or as a superb desk top letter rack or would make a wonderful addition to any collection and would enhance any table setting.
