Description

A truly stunning example of these highly desirable and popular wallclocks. A double-weight Vienna Regulator made by the World renowned GUSTAV BECKER and dating from around 1890. The walnut case is in pristine condition, retaining it's original French-polished finish and having a deep,rich,warm patina. The clock has a quite rare, 8" dia. enameled dial. (nearly all have 7") and this is in perfect condition with no cracks, chips or crazing. It has black Roman numerals and a subsidiary seconds dial. The brass weights and pendulum are also in very good condition. The clock has just been FULLY OVERHAULED AND SERVICED by a registered member of The British Horological Institute. The clock strikes once on the half hour and the hours on the hour. It is an 8 day, twin train movement. All in all, a truly magnificent clock that will grace any home.
