Description

A superb rosewood "Puginesque" style bracket clock of Gothic design by Wm. DOBBIE of FALKIRK, and signed "Clockmaker to The Queen". The magnificent rosewood case is a complete work of art in itself being overall Gothic in design and with a strong Pugin style influence. It has tapered cluster columns to the front corners with "pyramid" style finials above. To the lower half of the case is a brass surround inset panel with intricate inlaid brass fretwork. It terminates to a shaped and moulded plinth and stands on gadrooned bun feet. It has a superb original patination and lustre. To the sides are arched brass sound frets backed with contrasting red material. The 8 day, 5 pillar, pull-repeat, twin fusee, movement strikes the hours on a bell. It has just been fully overhauled by our BHI registered staff and carries our usual 12mths full parts and labour guarantee. It has a London style, lockable pendulum and is signed "Wm DOBBIE. Clockmaker to the Queen. FALKIRK. 1844." The 7" off-white dial has black Roman numerals with an outside minute track and birdsbeak hands. It has a cast brass bezel with silvered sight ring. Complete with original cranked winding key. (Always a sign ...
