Description

A marble French Art Deco clock. To the left, the clock with an eight day movement, with a brass bezel and brass effect clock face. Good black Art Deco numerals and hands. The clock strikes each hour and half the hour. To the right a young lady looking at a playful kitten with a ball of wool. The sculptor signed by Geo Maxim to the back of the dress. Geo Maxim was a French artist who worked in Paris during the 1920s and 1930s. He created stand alone sculptures and also provided his sculptures to be used on lamps and as in this case, clocks. The clock in very good condition with the movement professionally cleaned and serviced by a qualified horologist.
