Description

An unusual pair of large hanging glass porch lantern c.1930. The top gilded coronet has a decorative feature, a single bulb hangs within the heavily cut glass shades which refract the light. A bottom gilt finial finish off this attractive pair of lanterns. The lanterns can be hung at the same height or hung at varying heights in a space which gives a great affect. We also have two more pairs of glass lanterns and a single large listed which came from the same Chateaux in France. Wired, PAT tested and ready to hang. Height 55cm x W16cm, this is the height of the lanterns only without the chain and ceiling rose which come with the lanterns. This pretty pair have a delicate gilt frame which is studded with tiny beads throughout from which hang chains of button drops and the wall-lights are dressed overall with pear drops, French slabs drops and oval crystals. They have three simple arms each holding cut glass bobèche drip pans from which dangle small French slab crystals. c1920's Restored, wired, PAT tested and ready to hang. Height 56cm x Width 40cm x Depth 26cm. Please contact us regarding delivery All of our chandeliers and wall-lights are rewir...
