Description

Dating to around 1715, so either late Queen Anne or early George I, this superb walnut two section chest is in excellent original condition with original handles and escutcheons, the upper part of two short and three long drawers sits on a base of one long and three short drawers standing on four elegant swept cabriole legs. The chest has just been through our workshop where it has been refreshed to make sure all the drawers run smoothly and the patina is not lost.
