Description

A Very rare matched pair of English Georgian burr walnut chests of drawers. Both chests are in wonderful condition with a great burr walnut grain and patina. These chests are fresh to the market. They are very distinct with fine oval panels to the tops and ends. There are very slight differences to the chest one is slightly smaller than the other suggesting they have been made to order by two different local cabinet makers of the time. The chests have been sympathetically restored in our workshops ready for their new home.
