Description

For your consideration are these large matching Art Deco Pair of glass wall lights. Totally authentic these wall lights are in heavy corner wall light sconces in opalescent glass signed egan to each shade. All held in a copper tone metal frame. These lights are fitted with a standard English bayonet bulb fitting. A candle or pygmy bulb of 25 to 40 watts is what we would suggest. Condition of the glass is very good but there are small chips to the glass on the edges of the slip shades. These hidden and do not show from the front or detract from the sconces in any way, they are just mentioned for accuracy. Ideal lighting to bring both glamour and focal point to any room. Slightly larger than normal wall lights so these look very impressive both on and off. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY
