Description

An attractive and large early 20th century oak refectory dining table. The oak dining table has a rectangular shaped top, with a decorative carved apron on either side. Raised on four turned legs united by straight stretcher supports. Full of character and charm. Item Ref; M-4080 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 75cm / Width – 198.5cm / Depth – 76cm / Legroom - 60.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related scratches and marks to the top and base (pictured), with additional fading to the base. There has been an honest repair to one of the corners (pictured). The oak dining table remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a good example of its kind. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
