Description

Very decorative and a good size French wrought iron and marble top console table, circa 1900. The iron base of the console has a wonderful aged look to it, with the majority of the paint having corroded and worn. Some traces remain of what would have been a green paint finished with some red and gold highlights. Beautifully scrolled legs and the size it is, will work with a large mirror hung above in an entrance hall or to use as a server table with the marble top. I have left the finish absolutely as it was when I found it, but if you would prefer it to be fully repainted and gilt highlighted for example, do let me know. Great decor piece... Measuring: Height 36 inches or 92cm Maximum width: 64 inches or 162cm Depth: 19 inches or 49cm
